Career Opportunities

White Ginger, a Chicago based manufacturer's representative group, is always looking for motivated individuals interested in a career as a sales representative.

We represent the best lines in the categories of Gift, Stationery, Personal Care, Baby, Publishing, and Home Decor. Our showroom is located in the Merchandise Mart in downtown Chicago.

Our customer base is continually expanding and ranges from independent gift retailers, home decor stores, spas, museums, national department and chain stores, and many more.

Successful candidates must have strong communication, time management, and interpersonal skills, in addition to being highly organized and enthusiastic.

You should have 2-3 years sales experience (retail/giftware industry a plus), live in the designated territory, and have the ability to work independently from a home-based office.

We offer high commissions, incentive programs, an initial training program, as well as on going training and development programs, sales support, and great customer service.

If you are a strong, energetic, organized self-starter, please submit your resume to info@whitegingerchicago.com
